

Turning Off the Automatic Zero Feature

By default, Blackboard Ultra applies the automatic zero function to work that is marked late based on the assignment due date. This feature does not prevent students from uploading assignments or preventing assessment access unless there is a Release condition or due date restriction. Click on the Gradebook title to begin.

Choose the cog wheel to access the Gradebook Settings.

Automatic Zeros

- ☒ Assign automatic zeros for past due work
- Students can submit late to update their grades.*
Students with due date accommodations aren't affected.

If you need to remove the automatic zero feature that has been previously applied, you will select the check-off box that is selected under the Automatic Zeros title. Then, you will choose the Clear existing automatic zeros radio button and click Confirm.

Don't assign automatic zeros

Going forward, past due work won't receive automatic zeros.

- ☐ Keep existing automatic zeros
- ☒ Clear existing automatic zeros
- Affected students' point totals will update*
